GOVERNOR GRAY'S DERBY

WINNER OF DERBY AT JACKSONVILLE ADDS LATONIA FIXTURE TO HIS SCORE.

Latonia Racing Opens Under Conditions That Testify to Rehabilitation of Sport in Estimation of Cincinnati Public and Great Meeting is Sure.

Cincinnati, O., June 10.—The Latonia Jockey Club in its long history never had a greater day nor a greater crowd for the opening of a spring meeting than was today and its superb gathering at the magnificent racing ground across the river in the green-covered hills of Kenton County, Kentucky. For some of the thousands who packed the stand and the clubhouse, swarmed the betting ring and the paddock, or spread themselves over the grassy sward in front of the stand and beside the clubhouse, or found their way to the shade beneath the trees of the infield the weather may have been too hot, but for racing it was ideal. The crowd was made up of representative people from Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana principally, but numbered in the vast throngs there were others from distant points. It was a crowd vastly different in character from many that gathered at "Fair Latonia" on the Derby days of a comparatively recent period. It was more like the crowds of the eighties, when the track was new and when people went to the races for the sport they extracted from them. It was a crowd that stands as a testimonial to the return of the thoroughbred and the racing he makes to the hearts of the people under the assurance that integrity is the watchword of the track management and that the commercial side of it only has a secondary place. In a word it was a day to gladden the hearts of all who live by racing and of all who wish well for the sport and its attendant industries.

Now as to the racing. It was as good as the best ever seen anywhere. The feature of the card was, of course, the twenty-ninth running of the Latonia Derby, with a guaranteed cash value of $5,000, of which the winner's portion was $3,500. The second's share $750, the third $350 and the fourth $175. The withdrawal of W. G. Yanke's Round the World, T. W. Flynn's Starry Night and J. B. Respass' Forehead left eight three-year-olds of the male sex to go the mile and a half. The public choice was Governor Gray, the bay gelding by Garry Hermann Wood next in order the dam of the fast colt Walden, which carried the colors of R. N. Smith & Co., respectively son-in-law and wife of Capt. J. T. Williams, of Spring Station, Ky., who selected the horse as a weanling and bought him for the insignificant sum of $175.

In making him the choice the public expected him to win and he did, but they were not prepared for any such surprising performance as this gelding, trained to the minute by James S. Everman, a true son of Latonia's hills and dales, and masterfully ridden by Jockey Rice, gave them. Held in mild restraint for the first mile, while Colston was leading the party, with Mud Sill at his flank and White Wood next in order, Jockey Rice began to move up with Governor Gray and passed the post marking the end of the mile, half a length in advance in 1:30. Around the far turn Colston hung at Governor Gray's flank for a sixteenth of a mile and then he was done. Governor Gray came on with an admirable burst of speed and entered the stretch three lengths before Star Charter, which was in turn two better than the locally-owned Messenger Boy, they having easily displaced the tiring Colston and Mud Sill. Under wraps and apparently with little effort, Governor Gray steadily increased his lead until at the finish in 2:30, time that fell only a fraction short of the American record, he was the winner by six lengths from Star Charter. John W. Schorr's colt, which in turn had five lengths the best of Gene Latz' Messenger Boy, with White Wood fourth, Any Port fifth, Colston sixth, Mud Sill seventh and Uncle Ben last, all strung out.

The ovation that Governor Gray received when he led his field home as the four leads the pack was a fitting tribute to the true race horse that he is, and the applause when the time was hung out was again tremendous, the crowd easily recognizing that the Derby and track record held by Han d'Oor at 2:32, made in the Derby of 1898, in which he raced the mighty Plaudit to his Waterloo, had been broken by six lengths from Star Charter. John W. Schorr's colt, which in turn had five lengths the best of Gene Latz' Messenger Boy, with White Wood fourth, Any Port fifth, Colston sixth, Mud Sill seventh and Uncle Ben last, all strung out.

The pushing, jostling throng in the betting ring was speculatively bent as attested by the volume of the wagers during the afternoon, it exceeding last year by nearly forty per cent. Withal it was a good-natured throng and unimpaired of the many discomforts. The followers of favorites fared well, as four first choices were returned winners. Their success began when Floral Day landed in the opener with Booby and Rose of Jeddah following her closely. American Girl in this race would have been a much more serious factor but for being cut down and it is thought that she was made practically useless as a racer. The $10,000 colt, Worth, was easily best in the second race and won commandingly. He only arrived at the course from Louisville about an hour prior to the running of the race.

H. C. Hallenbeck scored a double when Adams Express led home John Griffin II. and Melisande in the third race. The suicidal tactics employed by the riders of John Griffin II. and Melisande aided Adams Express greatly to the victory.

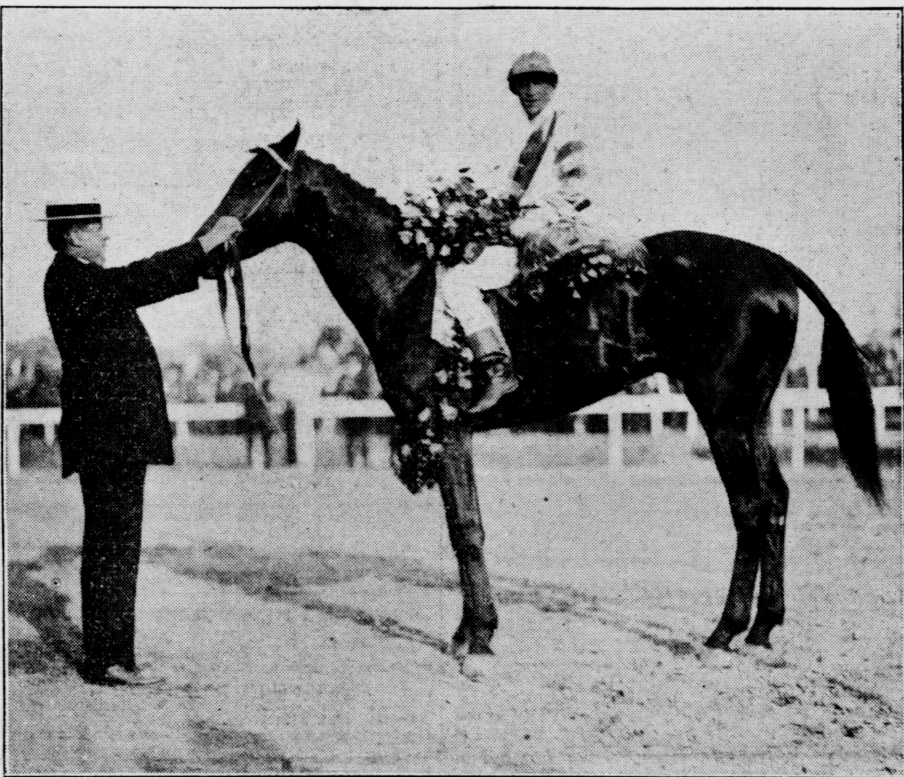

Bourbon Beau, which is showing continuous improvement with all his starts, made a bid for greater honors in the handicap division when he took Ocean Bound and Countess into camp. He was in receipt of a good deal of weight from each, but went at his more seasoned opponents with a will, disposing of Ocean Bound, which had offered him the most stubborn opposition in the early stages, in game fashion during the stretch drive. He won with plenty to spare. Countess was a trailer after the first quarter.

The closing race also went to an eastern owner, making it four for the invaders during the afternoon. Petronius was the lucky one and best of the starters, winning handsomely from Superstition, with Redwine just beating Joe Morris, last year's Latonia Derby winner, by a nose for third place.

Before the racing President Judge C. F. Price had a long talk with the riders, dwelling particularly on the fact that there had been too much rough riding at Louisville and that there must be none of it here. He warned the jockeys that an offense of this kind would be severely dealt with. Jockey T. Rice was the first to offend and was given a double dose of discipline by Judge Price. For his first offense, which came in the third race, while astride John Griffin II., he was fined $50, but when he again resorted to rough tactics in the fifth with Ocean Bound he was suspended for five days.

Capt. C. A. Tilles, the chief owner of the track, came from St. Louis to view the running of the Derby and note the opening. He was greatly pleased with the changed conditions and waxed enthusiastic over future prospects. He gave unstinted praise to General Manager John Hachmeister for the methods that brought about the confidence shown today and also attracted such a representative attendance to the track. Mr. Tilles departed

GOOD RACING OF A STERLING SON OF SPEEDY BROOMSTICK

MERIDIAN, HIS OWNER, R. F. CARMAN, AND JOCKEY ARCHIBALD.

The Kentucky Derby winner, Meridian, began his racing career as a two-year-old in a purse race at Gravesend, June 11, 1910. It was a successful debut, he winning by a length and a half from Rogon, with Fair Miss third and ten others unplaced, at five and a half furlongs in 1:11 over a sloppy track. In his next race, the Tremont Stakes, he fell, and in his third, the Foam Stakes, at Sheephead Bay, he ran third to Royal Meteor and Whist after making the pace to the last sixteenth. Colston was one of the four unplaced. He was then unplaced in the Great Trial Stakes at the same track, Round the World winning, with Iron Mask second and Naushon third. He was more fortunate in his next essay, winning a purse at five and a half furlongs in 1:06 1/2, with Aldrian second, Novelty third and Watervale among the unplaced ones. Novelty was the favorite, but had not ripened into his best form and tired after leading to half way down the stretch. July 4, in the second half of the Double Event, he finished second to Footprint, with Naushon third. Novelty, Cowd and Kingpin ran unplaced. He carried 122 pounds and was beaten a length and a half in 1:11 three-quarters straight. Then he was taken to Saratoga and ran unplaced to Textile. Whist and Semprolus in the Hurricane Stakes, August 6, and to Novelty, Iron Mask and Naushon in the rich Saratoga Special, which was run August 13. August 27 he was again unplaced. This time it was to Novelty, Naushon and Textile in the $10,000 Rensselaer Handicap. Bourbon Beau, which created a sensation by winning at long odds at Louisville recently, was fourth and Meridian fifth. Semprolus, Round the World, Colston and Whist were among those which finished behind Meridian. That ended his unsuccessful Saratoga campaign. At Montreal, September 10, he defeated Leah, Edda and five others for a purse at five and a half furlongs in 1:09 3/4. After that he ran twice unsuccessfully, finishing second to Footprint at Toronto at three-quarters in 1:13 1/2, with Wrap third and Star Charter among the unplaced ones, and running second to Zeus at Pimlico in a three-quarter dash in 1:12 3/4. Altamaha was third and three more unplaced. All around, Meridian's record as a two-year-old was a good one and he showed well in competition with the best of his age. That he would make a good three-year-old was plainly portended.

Reports of his having wintered well were current this spring and verified by his running when brought into action on the race track. His first start was in a dash of three-quarters of a mile at Lexington, May 6, in which he ran second to Chapultepec in such fast time as 1:12, a new track record. May 10, in the Blue Grass Stakes, he was beaten by Governor Gray in a stubbornly contested race at a mile and an eighth, in which lack of condition told at the end and led to his succumbing by a half length in 1:51 1/2, again a new track record. Then followed his gallantly achieved triumph in the Kentucky Derby. His next start will probably be in the Hamilton Derby, and his record and pedigree are as follows:

General Manager Hachmeister was all smiles to-night over the satisfactory results that his untiring efforts have accomplished. "From what I can learn it was the biggest crowd that ever witnessed racing in one day in the history of the course," said he. "Old timers tell me that it brings back to them memories of the glorious days when Latonia was a meadow to conjure with and stood for much in racing. It will be my aim while I am in charge of affairs here to cater to the public and reach out for the best there is in racing. I am greatly gratified over today's splendid turnout and results."

H. K. Knapp, steward of the Jockey Club, was among today's visitors. He was considerably impressed with the appointments here and sought out Mr. Hachmeister to congratulate him. He said: "This is my first visit to any of the western courses and I am really glad I came. For picturesqueness Latonia has the world beaten and no one could find fault with the splendid attendance today and the racing."

MONTREAL MEETING ENDS

CLOSING DAY AT BLUE BONNETS MARKED BY A BRILLIANT ASSEMBLAGE.

Earl Grey, Governor-General of Canada, Attends in State and Is Given Great Ovation—J. W. Schorr Scores a Double with Aylmer and Froglegs.

Montreal Que., June 10.—The spring season of racing at Blue Bonnets came to a close with the running of today's program. The Montreal Jockey Club provided a card of eight races, two of which were steeplechases and two of the others handicaps on the flat. Despite dark clouds which hovered over the course, a brilliant assemblage turned out, the attendance being the largest of the meeting. His Excellency Earl Grey attended in state and was given an ovation not only by loyal Canadians, but by the visiting horsemen as well who have learned to admire this broad minded and gallant sportsman. More enthusiasm was manifested over the racing than on any day during the meeting and when Steve Lane, owned by the local sportsman, Colin Campbell, came from behind and beat Bigot in the Prince of Wales Steeplechase the vast throng in the grandstand rose to their feet and made the hills of Mount Royal echo with applause. The Prince of Wales Steeplechase was over the long course, Steve Lane was the extreme outsider in the betting and in the early stages was a distant trailer. Not until the last quarter mile did he loom as a factor, but at the finish he closed with a sparkling burst of speed and beat the tiring Bigot and The Welkin. The Welkin bled during the running and was eased up.

The tabulated history of the Prince of Wales Steeplechase is as follows:

Year.	Winner.	A.Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1908	Touchwood	143	Saffell	675	5:10
1909	Kara	158	J. Lynch	1,455	5:31 1/2
1910	Minto	143	Kelleher	1,295	5:45 1/2
1911	Steve Lane	142	Lynch	1,130	5:25 1/2

The popular yellow and black sleeves of John W. Schorr of Memphis were carried to victory by Froglegs and Aylmer. The latter, some of the best distance runners racing in Canada in the mile and a quarter handicap. He was ridden by Guy Garner, trailed along in the rear division until making the turn into the long homestretch, then moved up courageously and in the final furlong disposed of Secret and Stanley Fay, beating the former a couple of lengths. The mile and a quarter was won in 2:04 1/2, which marked a new track record for the distance. Olambala, the top weight and favorite of the race, was third.

Froglegs simply made a show of his company in the second race, winning in little more than a canter. He broke rather slowly, but went around the others with a rush and was soon out from under with a good lead. Trainer E. A. Brewster timed the colt separately the first half mile in 46 1/2.

The colors of R. T. Wilson were borne to victory for the first time in a steeplechase when Brushbrook won the third race.

Olsen, an apprentice under contract to Hugh Penny, showed good form today. He rode the winners in the last two races and his finish on Carrillon was an excellent bit of riding.

A majority of the layers that operated at Blue Bonnets will go from here to Hamilton, where the meeting opens on Saturday next. A. N. Elrod, representative of Smith & Jones, was a visitor at the course this afternoon looking after their interests. He reports many additional layers will come from New York.

A majority of the horsemen have arranged to ship from here to Hamilton on Monday. R. F. Carman and S. C. Hildreth will send down about eighteen horses. The remainder of their strings will probably be sent to Saratoga.

LAGOON HAS ITS GREATEST CROWD.

Salt Lake City, Utah, June 10.—The greatest holiday gathering ever seen at a race course in Utah visited Lagoon Park today and witnessed right good sport. The finishes were of the exciting kind and the enthusiasm shown at the conclusion of each race attested the keen interest taken by local patrons of the sport. The best field of the day was seen in the fourth race, with Spohn and Myles O'Connell most in favor with the talent, the first named having a slight call at post time. Frank Mullens set a hot pace nearly all the way and stood a drive gamely, but succumbed finally to the Bedwell barrier, which was always close to the pacemaker. Execute was a distant third. The success of two of the Bedwell horses demonstrates that this wizard trainer has not lost the skill for which he was noted in the past, and the excellent form his horses are showing here has attracted a following which is ready to back heavily anything he sends to the barrier.

The layers had a winning day, the public incurring extensive losses on Free, Dell and Round and Round, all of which were heavily backed to win. Hoyle, Delena, Sinn Feinn, Ed G. Rosamo and Sainest, for unruly actions at the barrier, have been put on the schooling list by starter Dwyer. Barney Schreder scored his initial success of the meeting with the win of Ban Ann in the third race. This good daughter of Bannockburn made a show of her opposition. Lagoon, the first of the get of the once famous Proper, made his appearance in the allowance race for two-year-olds. He is a fine-looking youngster, but he ran greenly today.

GITTINS BILLS ON CALENDAR OF SENATE.

Albany, N. Y., June 10.—The Codes Committee has reported for the consideration of the Senate the two bills introduced by Senator Gittins, which racing interests in this state say must be enacted into law if the race tracks are to be opened this year. These two bills define bookmaking and release directors of racing associations from criminal liability for gambling on the tracks where they have no knowledge that gambling is carried on. Bookmaking is defined as "accepting wagers and bets from all comers and the public."

A legislative committee can report a bill in three different ways—favorably, adversely or for consideration. When a bill is reported for consideration it means that the committee takes no position on the bill one way or the other, which permits the members of the committee to vote as they please on a bill when it comes up in open Senate. The reporting of these bills for the consideration of the Senate gives them the same place on the general orders calendar as though they had been reported favorably by the committee. The members of the committee are Senators Stilwell of New York, Bayne of Richmond, Loomis of Erie, Gittins of Niagara, Black of Kings, Pollock and Griffin of New York, Democrats, and Hinman of Broome and Cobb of Jefferson, Republicans.

out until fall.W. K. Vanderbilt carried off two stakes in the races at Madison-Lafitte in France Friday, San Pie tro winning the Prix de Bezons (hurdle), and Negofol the Prix la Moriniere.Starter Mars Cassidy is quoted as follows concerning the recent meeting at Churchill Downs:
"Louisville this season has raced up to the metropolitan standard. I never expected, after Washington Park closed, to see such racing in the west."O. O. Lumpkin, who campaigned a small string of horses during 1908, and who left the turf to become a traveling salesman in Arkansas, was renewing acquaintances at Churchill Downs during the closing days of the meeting. He expects to purchase a couple of maiden two-year-olds for racing at the county fairs in Arkansas next fall.John Hogan, a well known assistant starter, left Chicago for Louisville and Lafonia to superintend the shipment of horses that will race at Hawthorne during the two-days meeting under the auspices of Carden City Branch No. 11, National Association of Letter Carriers. It is expected that there will be a special train with horses from Louisville this week and another from Lafonia just prior to the meeting.Before leaving Louisville with his string for La-fonia trainer Harry McDaniel gave out the information that he would send the sensational California two-year-old, Amon, until fall in order to give the son of Puryear D. all the time necessary to recover from sickness contracted while at Norfolk. This will leave the two-year-old supremacy at Lafonia to be settled between the $10,000 Worth and T. C. Mc-Dowell's unbeaten colt, The Manager.

AN EPSOM TIME RECORD BROKEN.

The world-famous Epsom course is peculiarly favorable to fast horses, one result being that it holds the record at sprinting distances among English tracks. At the recent meeting there a new record for five furlongs was made when the Amphion horse, Levanter, with 123 pounds up, covered the distance in 55 1/2 seconds. This displaced the record of 56 1/2 seconds previously held jointly by Master Willie, Blue Diamond, Le Bull and Merida, and is 2 1/2 seconds faster than the American record of 58 seconds made by Tern's Trick. Master Willie is still the holder of the English record at three-quarters of a mile, his 1:07 1/2 at Epsom June 6, 1901, with 122 pounds up, being far faster than any record for the distance in this country. Levanter's record was made May 29, and on the same day J. B. Joel's four-year-old Sunspot, carrying 120 pounds, won at seven-eighths of a mile in 1:20 1/2, equaling the record previously held jointly by Var and Royal River.

CLARENCE MACKAY WINS POINT IN SUIT.

Lexington, Ky., June 10.—Clarence H. Mackay, the noted New York financier, breeder and turfman, who maintains a stud of thoroughbreds in Kentucky and another in France, and whose colors have been carried on both sides of the Atlantic, has scored the first tally in a legal battle that was precipitated by Robert L. Baker, of this city, from whom Mr.
Mackay leases the famous Kingston Farm near Lexington.When Mr. Mackay took his original lease on Kingston Farm October 31, 1905, it was for a term of five years, ending October 31, 1910. A renewal, however, was made in May, 1908, for the remainder of ten years, ending October 31, 1915. Last summer Mr. Mackay announced his intention of sending the stallion Meddler and a band of his best mares to France, the idea being, because of the passage of repressionary laws in New York, to race the product in France and England, or to sell the produce for racing in those countries.Mr. Baker, fearing that the sending of these horses from Kentucky to France might possibly result in some condition that would negative the agreement between himself and Mr. Mackay, filed a suit in the Fayette Circuit Court for approximately $80,000, virtually all of the sum anticipatory on the unexpired term of the lease and probable expenditures for improvements on the place, and attached the horses that were about to be sent to France.Mr. Mackay gave an indemnifying bond for double the amount sued for and shipped the horses to France, had the case transferred from the Circuit Court of Fayette county to the United States Circuit Court at Frankfort, and entered a demurrer to certain portions of the petition. Judge A. M. J. Cochran sustained the demurrer, which had the effect of defeating Mr.
Baker's claim to items aggregating $90,400, leaving the remainder to be tried later upon depositions that are to be presently taken by the plaintiff and the defendant. Judge Cochran's opinion carries a vein of sarcasm and in effect it is a guarantee to non-residents of Kentucky who have and are maintaining breeding establishments in the state that their interests will be safeguarded.Mr. Baker's contention now is that Mr. Mackay should be required to give a bond of approximately $50,000 as indemnity for the unexpired term of the lease. Mr. Mackay, on the other hand, contends that the record of his lease in the office of the county clerk is sufficient guarantee that he will meet his obligations to Mr. Baker and furthermore that he has at Kingston Farm horses and other property of more than $50,000 value. The question of whether or not Mr. Mackay should give this bond is now to be decided by the court.The largest sucklings at the St. James Stud are two fillies and colts by the Frank that were foaled at the farm of J. F. Newman near Sweetwater, Tex., in January. The fillies are out of Alma Gardia and Our Bessie and the colts are from Sainvoke. They are now as large as many yearlings in this section of the country. Their dams have been mated with St. Savin.Col. Milton Young recently sold to Harry Rites, of Baltimore, two good looking thoroughbred yearling colts for a fancy price. The best looking of the pair is a son of Hamburg and Flying Gold Dust, by Ben Brush, she out of Maid of Fortune, by Prince of Monaco. This colt was bred by E. C.
Covida in the Maplecrest Stud, but he was foaled as the property of Colonel Young, who bought the mare at the winter sale here in 1909 for $12,500.
He realized more than double that amount for the colt. The other is the chestnut colt by Ort Wells—Kairona, by Woolsthorpe, she out of Gretchen (dam of Maggie Clifton), by Luke Blackburn. This colt was bred by John A. Drake and Colonel Young bought him with his dam for virtually a song. His dam is a sister to Tim Pippin, which has raced successfully for Mr. Rites.

GOOD HORSES IN WINDSOR'S CHIEF STAKE.

Detroit, Mich., June 10.—Sixty-six entries for the Frontier Handicap, which will be run on the opening day of the Windsor meeting, July 15, embrace the pick of the mature division of thoroughbreds in the west, south, east and Canada. It would be almost impossible to pick out a poor field of ten or twelve from the nominees to Windsor's mile and an eighth stake this year. August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, has named four of his best in Whist, Flint Rock, Footprint and Priscilla. S. C. Hildreth has named all of his great horses for the Frontier, including Fitz Herbert, King James, Hampton Court, Restigouche, Shannon, Firestone, Joe Knight, Joe Madden, Novelty, Zeus and Royal Meteor. It is expected that Fitz Herbert will be assigned top weight.
In Novelty and Zeus Mr. Hildreth has two of the fleetest three-year-olds in the country.Then there is R. F. Carman's Meridian, winner of the Kentucky Derby and R. N. Smith's Governor Gray. T. R. Condran's entry is The Nigger, which in winning the Toronto Cup recently took the measure of Fitz Herbert and Zeus. Carlton G. has been nominated by Lon Johnson. This colt made a new track record for the Frontier distance at Louisville the past week. Mrs. L. A. Livingston, who has the distinction of being the owner of more running horses than any other woman, has named Lovetie Madrigalian and Picolata. Another woman owner represented in the Frontier is Mrs. May Lutz, who has nominated Messenger Boy, Spellbound and Vreeland, the property of M. C. Prichard, and Great Heavens, Descomets and Latone. The P. S. are the representatives respectively of Alabama and Florida. P. S. P. Randolph's Plate Glass is Pensylvania's representative. Barney Schreiber's Sager and Captain Carmody are among the Frontier eligibles, and J. W. Schorr's nominations embrace Edda, Star Charter and Aymer. Cliff Edge, which holds the seven-eighths of a mile record over the Windsor track, is R. E. Watkins' entry.The complete list of entries follows: Amalfi, Footprint, Picolata.
Aspirin, Galatine, Plate Glass.
Aymer, Governor Gray, Polls.

PRAISE FOR CHURCHILL DOWNS RACING.

Concerning the recent meeting at Churchill Downs, the Louisville Courier-Journal makes the following interesting comment:"What is considered to have been the most successful race meeting that ever took place in the south has come to a close at Churchill Downs. The spectators witnessed twenty-three days of the best racing that the west or the south has ever seen, and at the end there was a long cheer of appreciation for what had transpired. Manager M. J. Winn and his associates, in their wisdom, had agreed during the winter that for twenty-three days the sport was sufficient for a town the size of Louisville, but outsiders, basing their opinions entirely on the increased attendance, and the volume of money wagered, were of the opinion that the meeting could have continued at least thirty days longer with profit to the racing association and to that popular sport in which thoroughbreds measure strides to determine which is the fastest or has the greatest endurance. The result of the meeting proves conclusively that Louisville, growing to be a large city, will support a longer meeting. If there was a spectator who was dissatisfied with the entertainment offered he could not be found. The sport was of high class throughout and free from the noisy talk which is usually indulged in by men who wager their money and lose it."

LATEST KENTUCKY OAKS WINNER.

Louisville, Ky., June 10.—Bettie Sue, the winner of the thirty-seventh running of the Kentucky Oaks at Churchill Downs Thursday, is a chestnut filly by the successful Hanover stallion, The Commander, dam Alveria M., by Top Gallant. Alveria M. is out of Olephant, by Ormus, the latter mare being the dam of J. G. Greener's great colt, Countess. Bettie Sue is a Tennessee-bred filly, having been foaled on W.
O. Farmer's Edenwood Farm. Her present owner, A. Brown, bought her as a yearling from her breeder.
She was first trained as a two-year-old by Thomas Nepper, and after the Lafonia summer meeting of 1910 she was transferred into the care of J. C. Ferriss, who has since had her in charge. As a two-year-old last season she won three races in eleven starts and several of her defeats were almost as noteworthy as winning races, as she was nearly always outwitted against top-class youngsters.
Bettie Sue is a slightly built filly to look upon and has a wonderful turn of speed. Several times, as a two-year-old, she ran five furlongs in her work close to a minute. The Kentucky Oaks can be her only stake success in this state this season, as she has no engagement in any Lafonia fixture.
The first of the first two-year-old bred filly to win the Kentucky Oaks since White Frost captured the race in 1897.

BARNEY SCHREIBER'S HORSES IN TRAINING.

Barney Schreiber, who now enjoys the distinction of owning more thoroughbreds than anybody else in this country, has thirty-nine horses in training at Woodlands Farm in Missouri at the present time.
There are among the lot numerous near relatives of horses that have attained fame on race courses in all parts of America and that have done their part in making a reputation for Mr. Schreiber's noted nursery for thoroughbreds. The list of the horses
